Hello campers,

ORC will welcome Pris Buttler and Tammy Easler this year and also welcome back Kathy Meentemeyer. I am thankful that you have chosen to come, as this is the premier camp in Mississippi. We have a lot of great things to offer in our state. You will love Oxford! We are looking forward to another great year of laughs, learning and loops. I will be happy for you to join us for our 7th year, where loops are pulled and friendships are made!!!

Happy Hooking,

Donna Holdiness

Pris Buttler

With a degree in Graphic Design, Pris Buttler has studied architecture and advertising. Along with her ongoing art business she designs patterns and teaches design to rug hookers. Pris is a certified McGown instructor and a member of the Dogwood Chapter of Atlanta ATHA Guild and Pearl McGown National Guild, the Southern Belles, and St. Simons Rug Hookers. Email: prisbuttler@charter.net

Kathy Meentemeyer

Kathy is a professional rug hooker and a certified McGown teacher from St. Louis, Missouri. She teaches at workshops throughout the country, as well as her studio at home. Kathy is an accomplished dye artist and specializes in color planning. Her desire is to help students express their own creativity. Check out the ORC website for some of her patterns. Email: imhooked8484@gmail.com

Tammy Easler

Tammy has been hooking since 1986 and became a certified McGown teacher in 2007. She teaches fine shading, wide cut and Hoving (sculpting). She is an excellent teacher for beginners, as well as those who just need some help getting over a hump. This year at ORC she will be teaching a "Finish It Up" class. This class will help you finish a project already in progress or she will also be happy to design a new project for you.
